

Brodnax, Virginia

The garage alongside Tanner's Store stands testament to the country store that did it all: filling station, grocery store, and automobile services like oil changes and lube jobs. This collection of vintage petroleum company signs hearkens to days gone by when buddies of the mechanic whiled away the hours watching the magic of the oil change or flat tire repair.